Parent and Teacher Guide

Studies have proven learning is enhanced through the use of several senses. A recent study shows that we retain 10 percent of what we see, 20 percent of what we hear, and 50 percent of what we see and hear. But when we see, hear and do, we retain 90 percent of the information.

(Lisa Marie Nelson, Ph.D., Author “The Healthy Family Handbook”).

The purpose of this Resource & Activity Book is to help children learn and retain the story theme and principles in a fun and educational way. Your children will love coloring pages, solving puzzles, matching games, completing word searches, and much more! Each Resource & Activity Book also features challenging questions and activities for children from preschool through middle school. And in the rare case you don't know an answer, there's an answer key in the back!

LEVEL OF DIFFICULTY

The activities in this book are designed in three levels of difficulty designated by symbols. The activities with one symbol are geared towards younger children while the activities with two and three symbols become increasingly challenging for older children.

Level One
Easy

Level Two Intermediate

Level Three Advanced

CURRICULUM RELATED

These educational activities are related to various educational discipline such as social studies (geography, history, culture), language arts (spelling, creative writing, grammar, literature), math (simple equations), and science. There are also activities for character development, video awareness, problem solving, music, and art. The subject codes below are for your convenience.

The letters you have circled will spell out an important character quality of Ben Franklin's. Write the letters in their correct order in the spaces below.

Ben's inventions and experiments showed that he had much _____.

FOR THE EXPERTS:

What does the above word mean? _____

List two people that you think have this quality. Why do you think they have it?

Ben Franklin used both of these in his electrical experiments:

1. _____
2. _____

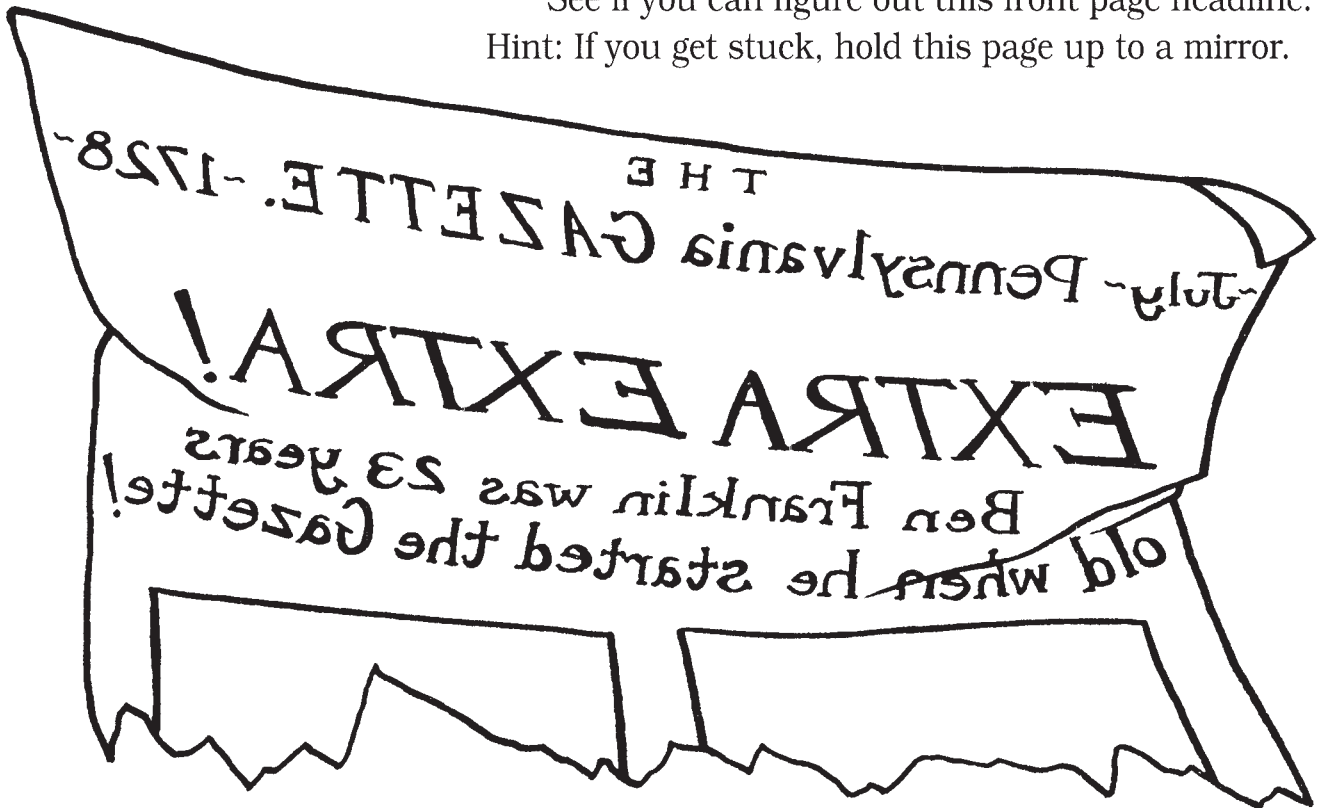

HEADLINES

Five years after Ben Franklin arrived in Philadelphia, he had his own newspaper, "The Pennsylvania Gazette." In Franklin's day, printers formed the words with metal letters called type. When all the words were formed, the type was inked and a sheet of paper was pressed against it. The printed pages were easy to read, but if you looked at the set type and not the paper, everything read backwards.

See if you can figure out this front page headline.

Hint: If you get stuck, hold this page up to a mirror.

Now, in the spaces below, write your own headline in reverse!

"Be always ashamed to catch thyself idle." Benjamin Franklin

Lightning strikes the clock tower and sets it on fire.

ELECTRICITY, FRIEND AND FOE

Ben Franklin found that many of his experiments with electricity were dangerous. There are many places today where we have electricity that are not safe to play around.

Read the sentences below. Then circle the letter in front of each sentence that describes dangerous electricity. Then write the circled letters in order in the blank spaces to complete the sentence below the puzzle. These letters will spell out a “super-charged” word.

- S Sticking your finger into an electrical outlet.
- B Flying a kite at the beach.
- H Touching overhead telephone or electric wires.
- E Riding your bicycle through the sprinklers.
- O Climbing an electric fence.
- Y Pulling a plug out of an outlet.
- C Taking the nuts and bolts out of the television and touching the wires inside.
- D Turning on the oven.
- K Taking a radio or hair dryer into a bathtub filled with water.

If I do the things I circled, I could get a big _____ !

BEN'S HELPER

Follow the dots to find the machine Ben Franklin used to do electrical experiments with.

What is the name of Ben's machine? _____

A+ 😊

Find The Spelling Mistakes...

Find and circle the spelling mistakes in each sentence below. Then write the words correctly in the spaces on the right.

- 1. Benjamin Franklin was a syentist. _____
- 2. He did experiments with elektrisity. _____
- 3. Ben was also a firemun and postmaster. _____
- 4. Franklin made many invenshuns. _____
- 5. Ben enjoyed helping peopel. _____
- 6. Lightning rods help protekt buildings from fire. _____

Now, using the correct spelling of the words above, write your own sentences about Ben Franklin in the blanks below. Be sure to use at least one of the spelling words in each sentence.

- 1. _____
- 2. _____
- 3. _____
- 4. _____
- 5. _____
- 6. _____

“There are lazy minds as well as lazy bodies.” Benjamin Franklin

Firemen rush to put out the fire!

WORD SEARCH

Find and circle all of the words that are hidden in the puzzle below. Words are down, across, diagonal, and backwards. You will find a list of these words at the bottom of the page.

TIME TO RHYME

Now, it is your turn to think of a rhyme.

There's nothing much to it, just give yourself time.

Look for the UNDERLINED words in this game.

Then find other words that sound the same.

Ben's first job was a PRINTER

In the summer and in _____.

He got the paper and the INK.

And wrote stories that made people _____.

In secret, Ben would WRITE.

He'd stay up half the _____.

To Ben, this was a GAME,

And he'd sign with another _____.

When brother James found OUT

He gave an angry _____.

So young Ben ran AWAY

In Philadelphia to _____.

In Philadelphia, Ben would start his LIFE.

Print his paper, meet his _____.

Though his experiments seemed ODD

He did invent a stove and the lightning _____.

INVENTOR'S CORNER

Ben looked at everyday things in a special way and created new ways to use them. How would you like to be an inventor like Ben Franklin?

Look at the list in the Inventor's Box below. These are things you use every day. Be creative! Make an invention that uses some or all of these things. It could be something that will help you with your homework or your chores at home. Or it could be a great new scientific discovery!

BEN'S WONDERFUL DISCOVERY

Ben Franklin took many steps to learn more about electricity. He used an electro-magnetic generator, a leyden jar, a kite and a key for his experiments. He learned that lightning and electricity were the same thing. This discovery helped him to invent the lightning rod.

The maze below shows each step Ben took in his discovery of electricity. Help him get from the generator, past the leyden jar and the key, to the lightning rod. There is only one correct path.

WHAT'S IN A NAME

In the word puzzle below, you will find that each letter of Franklin's name is also the first letter of another word. To find these words, read the statements to the left of each word. Each statement will give you the clues you will need to find the words. The first word has been done for you.

1. When lightning hits a building or tree, _____ start.

F I R E S

2. Ben became a wise man because he _____ many books.

R _ _ _

3. The thirteen colonies became the United States of _____ .

A _ _ _ _ _

4. While most people were sleeping, Ben did a lot of work late at _____ .

N _ _ _ _

5. Ben flew this in a storm and discovered electricity.

K _ _ _

6. A burst of electricity from the sky is called _____ .

L _ _ _ _ _

7. The lightning rod, the Franklin stove, and bifocals are some of Ben's _____ .

I _ _ _ _ _

8. Ben is a founding father of our country. Another word for country is _____ .

N _ _ _ _

"Better slip with foot than tongue." Benjamin Franklin face fill

Fill in the expressions of Ben's face to show how he is feeling.

When Ben saw Dr. Spencer's magic show, he was surprised. Draw his surprised look.

When Ben's experiment didn't work, he was disappointed. Draw his disappointed look.

When Governor Keith gave Ben the Royal Society medal, he was very happy. Draw his happy look.

When the dog took Ben's kite string, Ben was angry. Draw his angry look.

HOW ABOUT YOU?

What surprises you? Draw your face here with a surprised look; then write your answer below.

What disappoints you? Draw your face here with a disappointed look; then write your answer below.

What makes you happy? Draw your face here with a happy look; then write your answer below.

Ben uses a kite and a key to prove lightning and electricity are the same.

BEN'S HAT COLLECTION

Ben had many occupations. In the video, he wore a special hat for each one. All of Ben's hats are on the hat rack below, but the names for each hat are missing. Write the correct name of each occupation in the blank under each hat (NOTE: One hat belongs to his wife Deborah. Write her name under that hat.)

Below is another hat rack. This one has names of different occupations, but all of the hats are missing. Draw what you think the hats would look like for each occupation.

"A good example is the best sermon." Benjamin Franklin

Ben Franklin started his own print shop when he was just twenty-three years old. Like other shopkeepers of his time, he hung a sign outside his shop. This sign told who he was and what business he was in. It probably looked similar to the big sign above.

How many words can you make using the letters in the sign? (NOTE: You cannot use any letter more times than it appears in the phrase. For example: no more than one B, two S's, one F, etc.)

3 Letter Words - 1 point each	4 Letter Words - 2 points each
___ words x 1 = ___ points	___ words x 2 = ___ points
5 Letter Words - 3 points each	6 Letter Words - 4 points each
___ words x 3 = ___ points	___ words x 4 = ___ points

TOTAL POINTS ___ :

5-15 = Junior • 16-30 = Intermediate • 31-45 = Advanced • 46-60 points = Ace
 61-85 = Champ • 86-100 = Super Champ • 101 and up = Out of Sight!!

BEN'S SIZZLING SCIENCE SECTION

One of Ben Franklin's most important scientific discoveries was electricity. There are two kinds of electricity: current electricity which moves through wires and bulbs and around a circuit, and static electricity which stays still.

You can make static electricity yourself. Here are two simple experiments you can do at home or school. Follow each step exactly and write what you discover in the blank spaces below each question.

Experiment One: THE BALLOON BOUNCE

STEP 1: Blow up two balloons and attach a long piece of string to them.

STEP 2: Rub the balloons on your sweater. What happens when you lift them by the string? _____

STEP 3: Put a stiff sheet of paper between the balloons. What happens? _____

STEP 4: Take away the paper. What happens to the balloons? _____

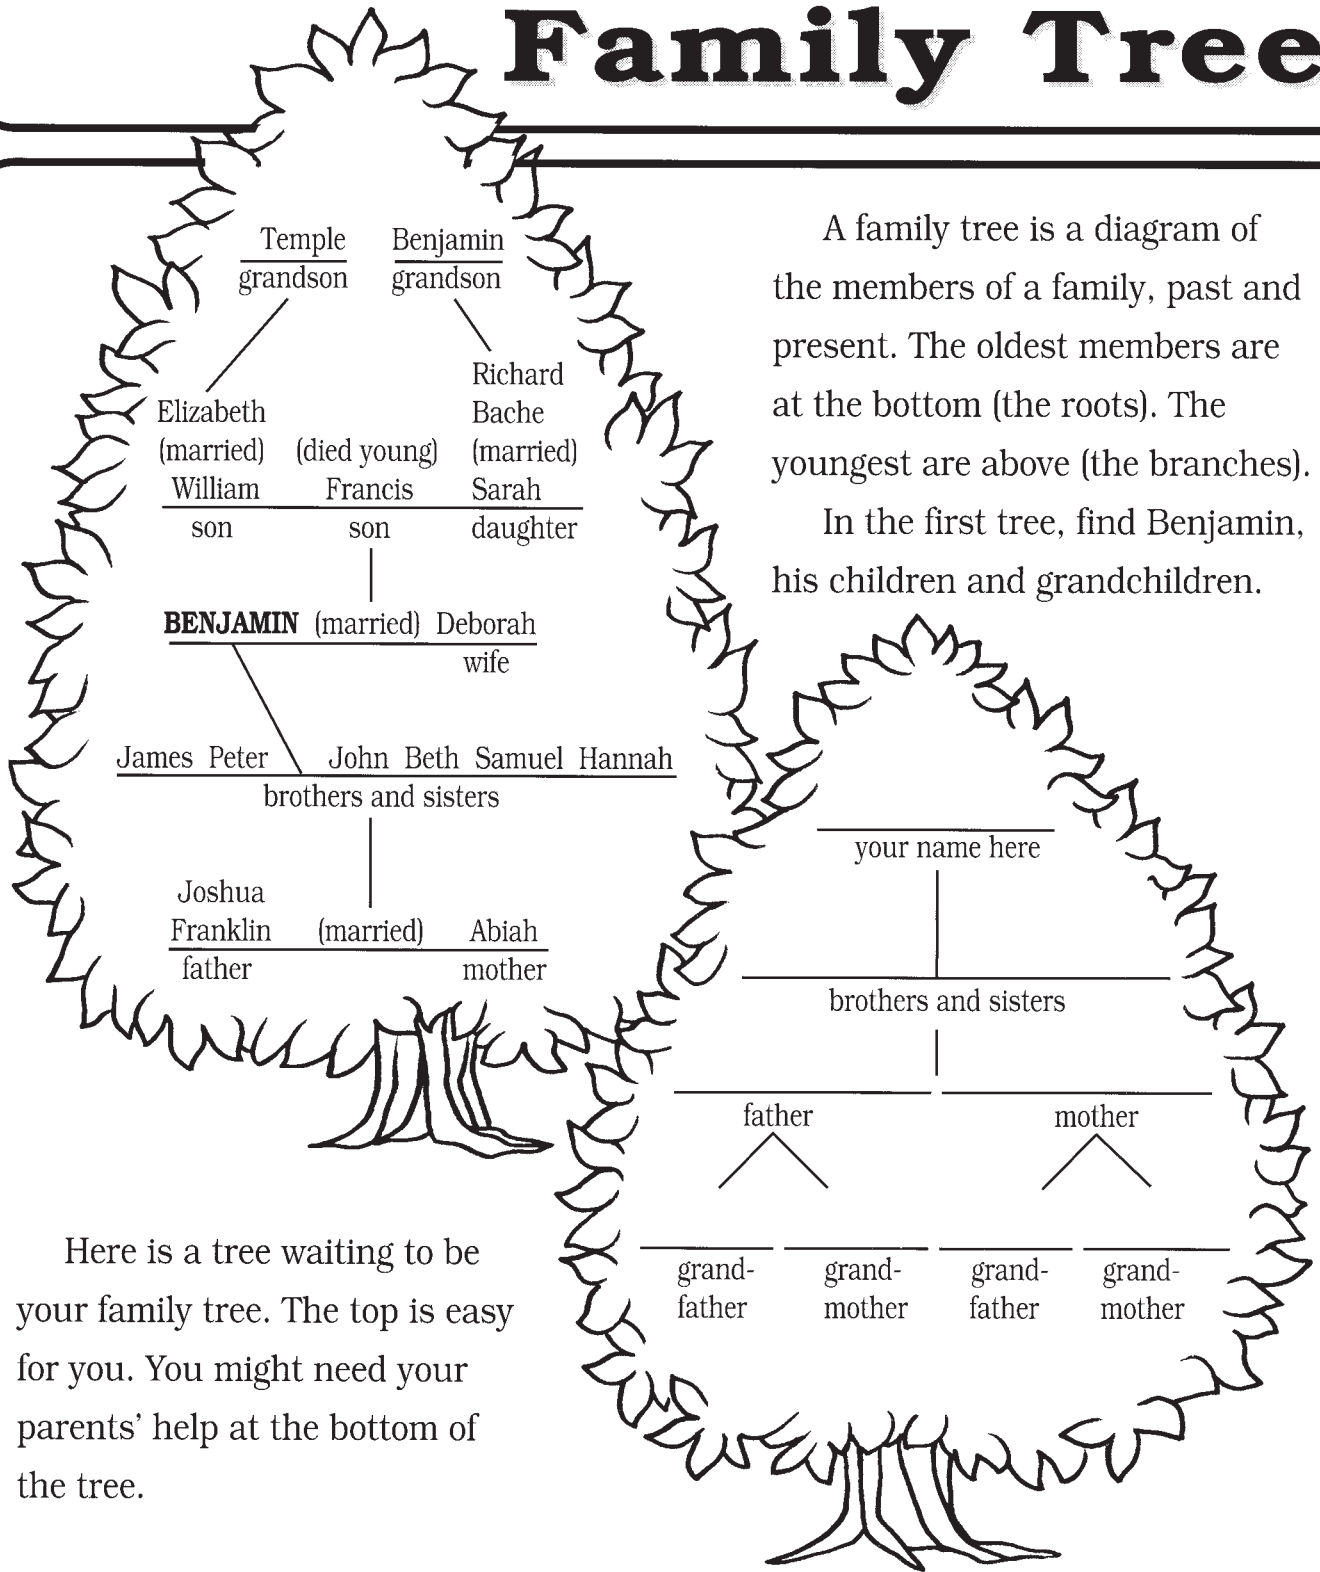

Experiment Two: THE ELECTRIC BALLOON

STEP 1: Take one of the balloons from experiment one. Rub the balloon against something fuzzy. A sweater or even your hair will work.

STEP 2: Place the balloon against something flat, like a wall or a door. What happens? _____

Why do you think this happened? _____

FRANKLIN'S Family Tree

A family tree is a diagram of the members of a family, past and present. The oldest members are at the bottom (the roots). The youngest are above (the branches).

In the first tree, find Benjamin, his children and grandchildren.

Here is a tree waiting to be your family tree. The top is easy for you. You might need your parents' help at the bottom of the tree.

Ben's discovery creates quite a stir.

WORD SCRAMBLE

All of the scrambled words below are people or things found in the “Ben Franklin” video. Unscramble the letters and spell each word correctly in the blank spaces. The first one has been done for you.

- | | | | |
|----------------|-----------------------------|----------------|-----------------------------|
| 1. EITK |  KITE  | 6. LGINGIHNT |   |

| 4. IRNOVTNE |   | 9. SKPRA |   |
| 5. TRHEUDN |   | 10. GREONTEAR |   |

BONUS WORK

Write your own sentences about Ben Franklin’s discovery of electricity using the words you unscrambled from the list above. Do not use more than two of the words in each sentence. Write the sentences in the blanks below.

“Early to bed, early to rise, makes a man healthy, wealthy, and wise.” Benjamin Franklin

~~NOT~~ OUR NATIONAL BIRD

Ben Franklin was on the committee that selected our national bird. The bird Franklin suggested was not chosen. Connect the dots below to see the bird Ben wanted as our national bird. Then write its name in the blank space below.

“The _____ is a shrewd and cunning bird.” Benjamin Franklin

“Electricity goes through the wire to the ground,” says Ben.

MATCH-UPS

Match each person or thing in Column A with their correct description in Column B. Connect them with a line. The first one is done for you.

COLUMN A

COLUMN B

Hidden in the puzzle below is a word that shows a special character quality that Ben Franklin had. To find the word, look at the kites below. Draw a line from one kite to the one that matches it. As you connect the matching kites, your lines will cross a letter.

Now write the letters on these blanks: _____

Unscramble the letters to find the special word and write it on the blanks below. When you complete this sentence you will find what Ben Franklin had to say about this character quality:

“He’s a foolish man that cannot conceal his _____.” Benjamin Franklin

WHAT ARE WE??

Fill in the squares below to discover two important character qualities that Ben Franklin had.

THINGS TO DO

NOTE TO THE TEACHER: These are activities for a group to discuss and think about.

1. Discuss the differences between Ben's fire department and fire departments today. Group members can act out what it was like to put out a fire in Ben's time.

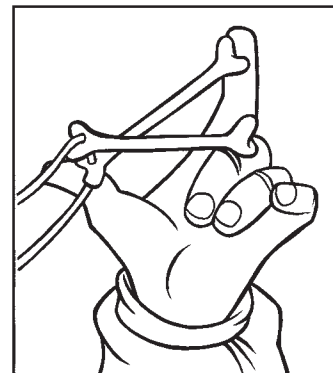

2. There are many things in your home that use electricity that we would not have if Ben had not made his discovery. Discuss what life would be like for you and your family if we didn't have electricity.

3. Ben did several experiments before he discovered electricity. He knew these experiments were important, so he did not give up. Discuss areas in your life where you've needed to be persistent. Why do you think persistence is important?

we have today, like television, cars, microwave ovens or computers?

4. Many people in Ben Franklin's time were very superstitious, like Mr. Miller in the video. If they didn't understand why things happened, they would make up their own explanations. How do you think someone from Ben's time would explain some of the modern conveniences
