

Activity Time

What you need: A copy of the “Scripture Pictionary” activity (game cards included with this lesson), scissors, dry erase board and dry erase marker or several sheets of paper and markers, a clock or stopwatch, and a Gospel Art book or scripture story pictures from LDS.org (optional)

Preparation

1. Print out the game cards (or make up your own!).
2. Cut out the cards and place them in a stack face down.

Activity: (Younger children may need help from an older sibling or parent.)

1. Scripture Story Review: Do you know of any times in the scriptures where God has done seemingly impossible things? Let’s look through a few pictures (or talk about a few scripture stories) and see if you remember these stories (Look through the Gospel Art book or pictures online, if available). Do you think we could guess these stories if we took turns drawing them?

2. Game Instructions: Choose one person to be the “artist”. That person chooses a scripture story card from the stack, careful not to show it to anyone. They have 60 seconds to draw the picture. While they are drawing, the other family members try to guess what story is being drawn. If someone guesses correctly, a new “artist” is chosen and they take a turn drawing while the family guesses.

3. Discuss: Why did God choose to do these things? What was he teaching?

4. Conclude by bearing testimony about how God has power to do things we may not understand, or things we may think are impossible. God hears and answers our prayers, not always when or in the way we expect, but he knows what is best for us and he loves us.
