

Opposition In All Things

2 Nephi 1-5

Objectives:

- Talk about why opposition is important in Heavenly Father's plan.
- Discuss ways to be happy even when difficult or sad things happen to us.

Reinforces Principles of:

- Enduring Well
- Opposition

This Lesson contains 4 activities:

Choose the activities that fit your family's schedule.

Use on Mondays to introduce the topic, or the following Sunday to review.

Reverence Time: Song, prayer, scripture and video clip

Lesson Time: Lesson summary and points to ponder

Activity Time: Object lesson or activity

Treat Time: Prayer, theme related recipe

Reverence Time

Approximate Time: 5 minutes

Sing Together: Choose the Right Way, Children's Songbook Page 160
If you wish to print sheet music or have an online music file to accompany you visit:
<https://www.churchofjesuschrist.org/music/library/childrens-songbook/i-will-follow-gods-plan>

Prayer:

Scripture Time: 2 Nephi 2:11

11 For it must needs be, that there is an opposition in all things. If not so, my firstborn in the wilderness, righteousness could not be brought to pass, neither wickedness, neither holiness nor misery, neither good nor bad. Wherefore, all things must needs be a compound in one; wherefore, if it should be one body it must needs remain as dead, having no life neither death, nor corruption nor incorruption, happiness nor misery, neither sense nor insensibility.

Video Clip: Watch clips from the Living Scriptures Streaming Library. You can find the clip at <https://www.livingscriptures.com/fhe-lesson-opposition>

Lesson Time

Approximate Time: 10-15 minutes

Lesson

Summary: After Lehi and his family had been in the Promised Land for a little while, Lehi grew old and was about to die. He wanted to talk to his family before he died. He taught each of them the things he thought they would need to know to follow Jesus Christ and be happy.

Lehi taught his son Jacob that there is opposition in all things. How would we know what being happy was like if we were never sad? How would we be able to choose the right if there wasn't any wrong? Opposition is part of Heavenly Father's plan of happiness for us.

Sometimes things happen to us that are difficult, sad, or painful. Instead of being angry, we can choose to learn from those difficult things, and even find happiness knowing that the Lord will help us through them. Because of the Atonement of Jesus Christ, He knows our pains and can help us. And if we make wrong choices as we learn and grow, He will forgive us if we try to follow Him.

Points to Ponder:

What kinds of trials did Lehi and his family face? (Discuss ideas)

What kinds of trials do you face? (Discuss ideas)

Why does a loving Heavenly Father want us to experience trials and hardship? (Discuss ideas)

How can we learn lessons from our trials? (Discuss ideas)

How can the things we learn help us to be happier? (Discuss ideas)

Quote:

“As we look for humor, seek for the eternal perspective, understand the principle of compensation, and draw near to our Heavenly Father, we can endure hardship and trial. We can say, as did my mother, ‘Come what may, and love it.’” Joseph B. Wirthlin

Activity Time

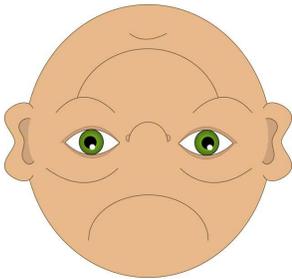

What you need: A copy of the “Turn That Frown Upside Down” activity (artwork included with this lesson) scissors, glue and cardstock.

Preparation

1. Print out the artwork.
2. Glue artwork onto cardstock.
3. Cut out.

Activity: (Younger children will need help from an older sibling or parent.)

1. Explain: When Elder Joseph B. Wirthlin was a young boy his mother taught him to endure adversity well. “Joseph,” she said, “come what may, and love it.”
2. Explain: Elder Wirthlin’s mother was not trying to teach him to suppress his sorrow or to hide his pain, but to handle adversity without anger or resentment.
3. Explain: Those who learn from difficult times become stronger, wiser and happier. Elder Wirthlin taught us four things in October 2008 conference that can help us through difficult times:

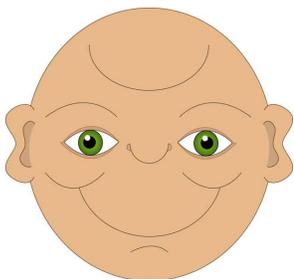

a. Learn to Laugh. Instead of getting angry or depressed, look for the humor in the situation.

b. Seek for the Eternal. Ask yourself: What is Heavenly Father trying to teach me from this experience?

c. The Principle of Compensation. Remember that the Lord compensates the faithful for every loss.

d. Trust in the Father and the Son. Handle your burden the best you can and then leave the rest to them.

4. Sing Children’s Songbook #267, “Smiles.”

5. Ask: How can smiling make the world a better place and make difficult times better? (Discuss ideas.)

6. Play the “Turn That Frown Upside Down” activity.

Turn That Frown Upside Down

One person is chosen to be the orator. The first player holds the smiling/frowning face with the frown showing. The orator reads one of the adverse situations in the list or make up your own that can make you feel sad, mad, angry, etc. Example: Someone tripped you in the hall.

The player then turns the frown upside down and gives a positive reaction to the situation that will bring them happiness. Example: I can be happy because I didn't knock out a tooth when I fell.

Then give an example of what Heavenly Father is teaching you. Example: I am learning how not to treat others.

There is an example for each incident in parenthesis if you need help.

1. You were playing a game with friend and you lost. (I can be happy because I know I didn't cheat. I am learning how to be happy for others when they win.)

2. Your Grandma broke her hip and now she can't take you to the zoo.
(I can be happy spending time with Grandma and doing things for her that she can't do while she's recuperating. I am learning to serve others.)

3. A group of kids have been teasing you because you're a member of the church.
(I can be happy that I'm living my religion. I am learning to not persecute others for their religion.)

4. You can't go to the movies with my friends because you have to baby sit your sister.
(I can be happy because I am helping my parents. I am learning to honor my parents.)

5. The boy who sits behind you in class is always pulling your hair.
(I can be happy because I have hair. I am learning to treat others the way I would want to be treated.)

6. You don't want to wear your new glasses because you think they make you look nerdy.
(I can be happy because I will now be able to see the questions on the board. I am learning to not be vain.)

7. You ran a marathon race and came in last.
(I can be happy because I finished the race. I am learning humility.)

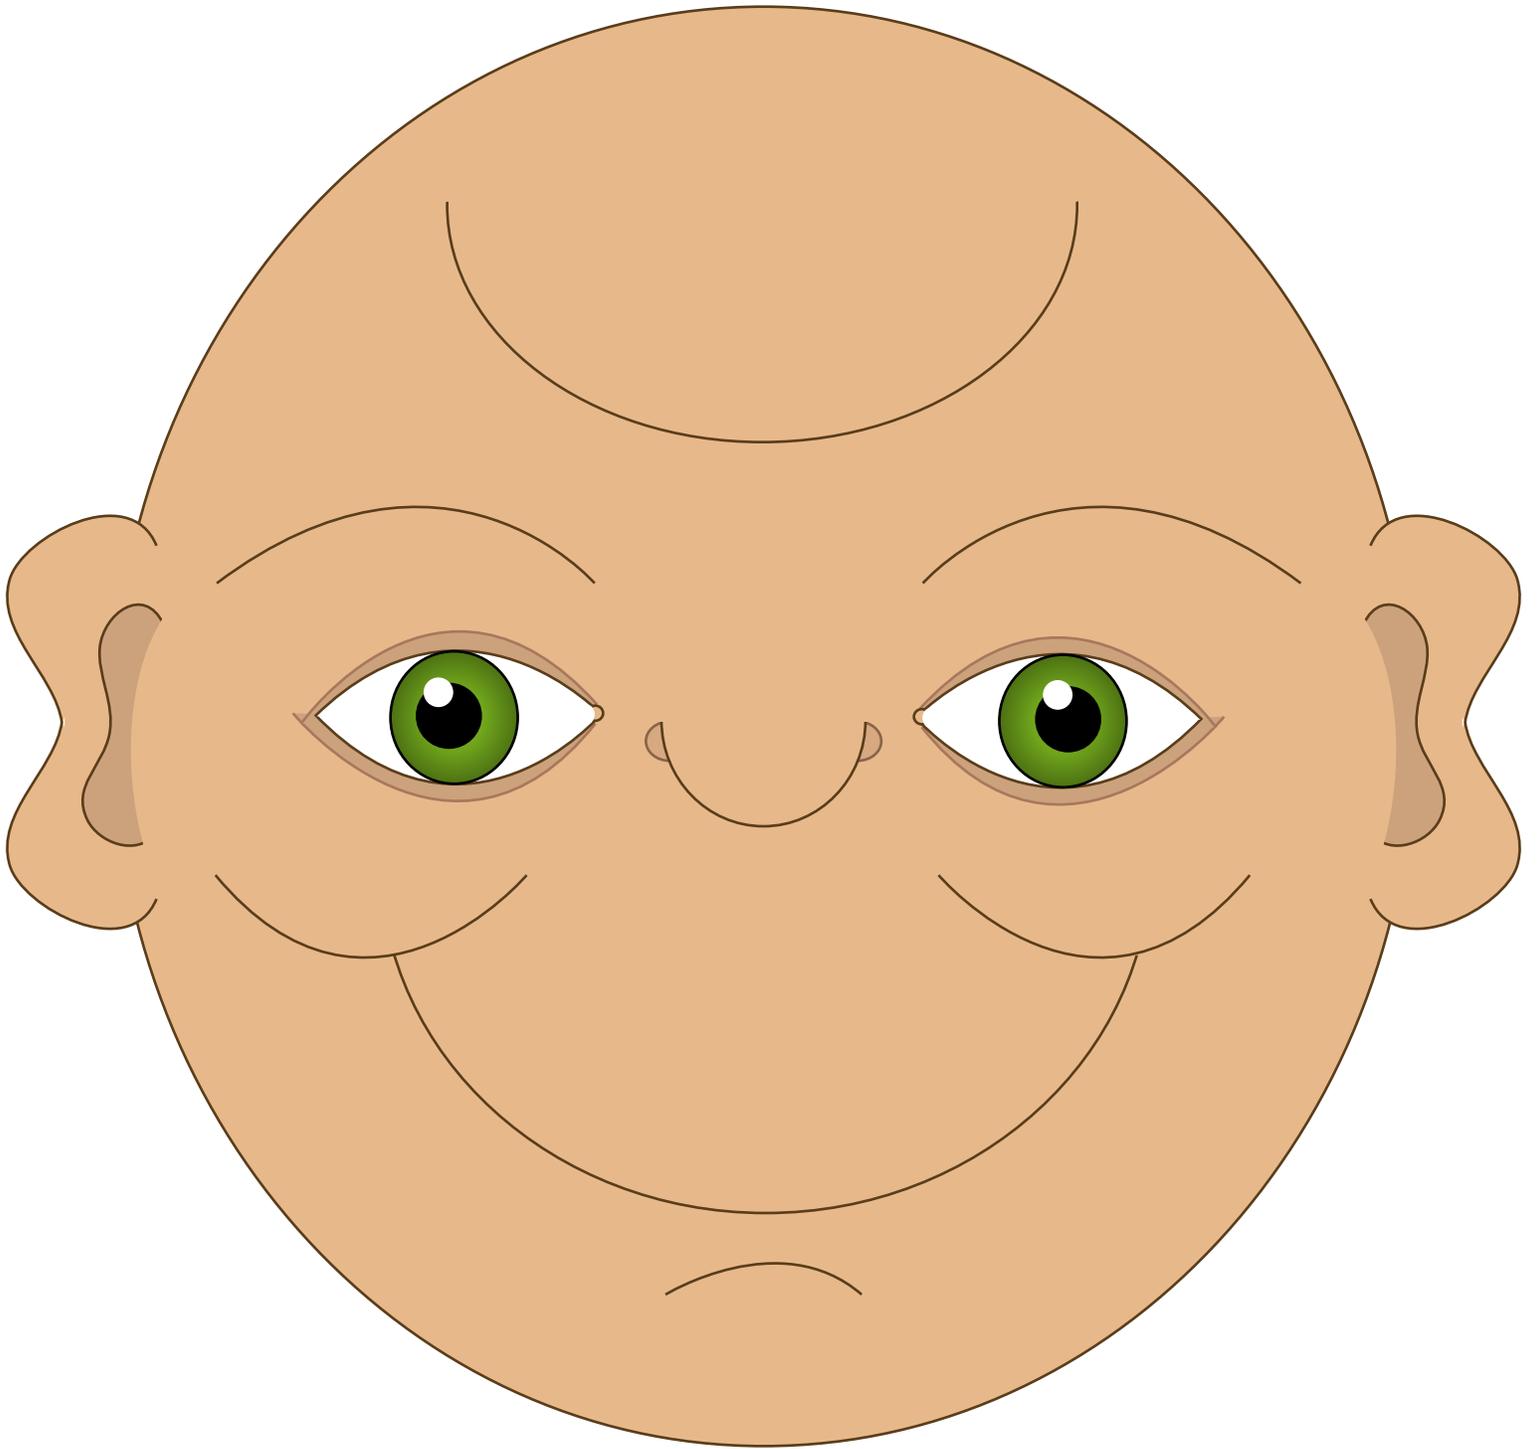

8. You were late to your recital because your mom followed the wrong directions.
(I can be happy because I still got to perform my number and we aren't lost any more. I am learning patience.)

9. Someone you love passed away.
(I can be happy [after I am done mourning] because I know families can be together forever. I am learning to live worthy so that I can live with them and Heavenly Father again someday.)

10. You hit your head on the cupboard door that you left open.
(I can be happy because I controlled my tongue. I am learning to not leave the cupboard door open.)

11. We missed our exit because another car cut us off.
(I can be happy we didn't get in a wreck. I am learning to be understanding when others make mistakes.)

12. Your Dad lost his job because the company he worked for went out of business.
(I can be happy because my parents listened to the prophets and although we will have to make sacrifices we are prepared for hard times. I am learning to listen to the prophet.)

Treat Time

Approximate Time: 15 minutes

Prep Time: 5 minutes

Bake Time: 8 minutes

“Peanut Butter” Smiley Face Cookies

1 cup peanut butter

1 cup white sugar

1 egg

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F.

Combine ingredients until smooth.

Treat Time: Let children roll dough into 1 inch balls and put on ungreased baking sheets.

Lightly flatten each ball with the bottom of a glass. Use a toothpick or skewer to draw a smiley face on each cookie. Bake for 8 minutes.

Closing Prayer and blessing on the food.