Lesson Time

Lesson Summary:

7: Alma continues to preach to the people of Ammonihah. He teaches them about the priesthood. He teaches that the Lord ordained high priests after the order of the Son of God. The high priests were called because of their faith to teach the commandments and help people look to Jesus Christ for redemption.

When Alma had finished speaking, the people were angry because he'd told them they were being wicked and needed to repent or they would be destroyed. The people tied up Amulek and Alma and gathered up the people who believed the word of God and threw rocks at them, and cast their families and their scriptures into a fire. Amulek wanted to save them with the power of God, but Alma knew the Lord was receiving these people, and this wicked act of the unbelievers would stand as a witness against them at the last day. Alma and Amulek were cast into prison, and for many days they suffered without food or water. The chief judge came to mock them again, and Alma prayed for strength that the Lord would deliver Alma and Amulek. The prison shook and the walls fell, crushing the wicked people, but Alma and Amulek went free.

Quote: "We declare to the world that the fulness of the gospel of Jesus Christ has been restored to the earth. We declare with boldness that the keys of the priesthood have been restored to man, with the power to seal on earth and in the heavens. The saving ordinances pronounced by the Lord as requirements for entering into eternal life with Him can now be performed with binding authority by those who worthily exercise the power of His holy priesthood." Activity Time

Description:	Play the PRIESTHOOD KEYS GAME to learn about how the priesthood and a few of the priesthood keys work together.
What you need:	A copy of the"Priesthood Keys" activity (artwork included with this lesson), Scissors, glue, paper punch and a metal ring (may substitute a strand of ribbon, yarn, or even a twist tie), pencils and paper
Preparation:	 Print out the art work . Fold along dotted line (careful to line up paper edges) & glue together. Cut out keys. Use paper punch to make hole in each key. Cut out cards.
Activity:	1. Ask: What do we need to unlock our house door? (A key.)
	2. Ask: If someone doesn't have a key, how else can they appropriately get in the house? (Someone who has a key can either give them a key or give them permission to enter.)
	3. Explain: This is the same with the priesthood and the priesthood keys. A worthy priesthood holder can not use the power and authority of God to perform the many different priesthood ordinances unless he holds that particular priesthood key or has permission to use that power from the priesthood member who holds that key.
	4. Explain: The keys of the priesthood are spiritual keys that we can not see. They are given to worthy priesthood holders by the laying on of hands. Jesus Christ holds all of these keys and He bestowed them upon His 12 Apostles. Ancient Prophets and Apostles, came back to earth and restored these same keys upon Joseph Smith. Each President of the Church has received these same keys.
	5. Explain: There are many, many different priesthood keys. The Prophet and Apostles hold "all" the priesthood keys, but the Prophet and President of the Church is the only man on earth who has the power to use "all" of the priesthood keys.
	6. Play the game to learn about how the priesthood and a few of the priesthood keys work together.
	A. Divide into two evenly, as possible, educationally-balanced groups.
	B. Place the keys, face up in a row, and the cards, face down in a pile, on the table.
	C. Each group takes turns drawing a card, reading about the priesthood key and answering the questions. Score 1 point for each correct answer and 2 points for Bonus Question.
	E. After answering the questions, place the corresponding key on the ring. When all the keys are on the ring have each person write the answer to the following question on a piece of paper (younger children will need someone to write their answer for them): Who is the only person on earth "today" who has the power to use all the keys? (President Nelson.) Score 1 point for each correct answer.

SEALING POWER

"Nothing is regarded with more sacred contemplation by those who know the significance of this authority. Nothing is more closely held. There are relatively few men who hold this sealing power upon the earth at any given time—in each temple are brethren who have been given the sealing power. No one can get it except from the prophet, seer and revelator and President of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints or from those he has delegated to give it to others." Endowed from on High: Temple Preparation\Seminar Teacher's Manual © 2007 Intellectual Reserve, Inc. All rights reserved.

1. What does it mean to be sealed? (That you can be a family together forever.)

2. Where are the sealing ordinances performed? (In the temple.)

3. What does it mean to be "born in the covenant"? (Children born to parents who have been sealed in the temple.)

4. Can you be sealed to your family even if you are not "born in the covenant"? (Yes. You can go to the temple and be sealed for eternity.)

Bonus Question: Who was the ancient prophet who restored the keys of sealing power to the Prophet Joseph Smith in the Kirtland temple? (Elija.)

POWER TO BLESS AND NAME BABIES

The Bishop/Branch President holds the keys for blessing and naming of infants. The name given is then put on the records of the church.

1. What priesthood does a man need to hold before he can get permission from the Bishop/ Branch President to give a babies blessing? (Melchizedek Priesthood.)

2. When a baby is given a name and a blessing the men stand in a circle. Do all of the men need to hold the Melchizedek priesthood? (Yes.)

3. Where are babies usually given their name and blessing? (Sacrament meeting.)

4. Does a baby have to be given their name and blessing in Sacrament Meeting? (No. But the Bishop/Branch President has to give their permission to have it done elsewhere.)

Bonus Question: Name three things that a baby might be blessed with. (Answers may include, but not limited to, health, mission, temple marriage, following parents' guidance, being a good example to others, etc.)

POWER TO ADMINISTER TO THE SICK

Just as Jesus blessed the sick, faithful Melchizedek Priesthood holders hold the keys to administer to the sick.

1. When a faithful Melchizedek Priesthood holder administers to the sick, are they always healed? (No.)

2. Why? (These blessings are limited by the will our Heavenly Father.)

3. Even though a faithful Melchizedek Priesthood holder can't promise healing can they always bring comfort? (Yes, if the person receiving the blessing has faith and believes.)

4. Administering to the sick consists of two parts. What are they? (Anointing with consecrated oil and sealing the anointing with a blessing.)

Bonus Question: What is consecrated oil? Pure olive oil that has been consecrated (given a special blessing) by two members of the Melchizedek Priesthood.

POWER TO RECEIVE REVELATION FOR THE ENTIRE CHURCH

The Prophet and President of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is the only person on the earth who holds the keys to receive revelation for the entire Church.

1. Why is the President of the Church, the only one who can receive revelation for the Church? (So that there will be order and others can not deceive us.)

2. When the Prophet & President of the Church gives us revelation, who is he speaking for? (Heavenly Father.)

3. Because the President/Prophet is speaking to us from Heavenly Father is it important to listen? (Yes.)

4. Even though we can't receive revelation for the church, can we receive personal revelation for ourselves? (Yes.)

Bonus Question: What promise has the Lord given us about the teachings of our Prophet? (That He will not allow him to lead us astray.)

Treat Time

Prep Time:	2 minutes
Cook Time:	2-3 minutes
Chill Time:	60 minutes

Ingredients: 1 (14 oz.) can sweetened condensed milk 1/2 cup creamy peanut butter 1 (10 oz.) package white chocolate chips 1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Instructions: Mix sweetened condensed milk and peanut butter in microwave-safe bowl. Heat in microwave oven for 2-3 minutes (until bubbly, but not boiling). Stir in white chocolate chips and vanilla until smooth. Spread evenly into wax paper lined 9-inch square pan. Chill for at least 1 hour. Turn onto cutting board; peel off paper. Cut into squares.

Treat Time: Give each family member 1 or 2 squares. Mold squares into key shapes. Store any uneaten portions in refrigerator.
