

Description: Play this fun gift passing game with your family and discuss the spiritual gifts Moroni mentions in Moroni 10: 9-17.

What you need:

- A copy of the "Gifts Game" activity (artwork included with this lesson,) cardstock or heavy paper (optional), scissors, and glue or tape. Optional: die

Preparation:

1. Print out the artwork (on cardstock or heavy paper if possible).
2. Cut along all solid lines.
3. Fold the box and die (if using paper die) along dotted lines
4. Glue or tape die tabs to form a cube. Glue or tape gift box tabs, leaving the tab of the top of the box unglued so it can be opened.
5. Cut gift wordstrips. Fold in half and place inside gift box.
6. Cut out gift passing instruction card.

Activity:

Explain that Moroni mentioned several gifts that come by the Spirit of Christ. We often call these "spiritual gifts".

Have the family sit in a circle. Give one person the gift box and another person the die. The person with the die rolls the gift and the person with the box follows the instructions according to the instruction card. For example, if someone rolled a six, the person with the gift box would pass it two places to the right.

If someone rolls a one or a five, the person with the box can open it and take out one of the wordstrips. If a gift wordstrip is chosen, discuss what that spiritual gift means and how someone might use it to help others. Continue playing until all wordstrips have been chosen.
